

CP 887 Attachment 2

Panel Decision

A paper was taken to the January 2003 Panel meeting that outlined the principles of the CP and requested that the Panel allow ELEXON to progress the changes detailed in the CP further with the relevant sub-committee. The Panel agreed that the change should be progressed. The paper that was submitted has been included as attachment 3.

Additional Information – Party Agents

In CP 887 no specific reference is made to how 'Party Agents' would be dealt with under the proposed file re-send process. It is intended that all Party Agents requesting file re-sends will follow the process as outlined for Suppliers in the CP.

The specific section of the BSC that allows ELEXON to charge BSC Parties for this service is paragraph 6.1 of Annex D-3. The paragraph states:

'Where BSCCo provides or procures any relevant service to or for a relevant person, subject to paragraph 6.3, BSCCo may, and if the Panel so requires shall, make a charge to the relevant person of an amount sufficient to recover relevant costs'.

The specific section of the BSC that enables ELEXON to charge non BSC Signatories for this service is Paragraph 6.2 (b) of Annex D-3. The paragraph states:

"For the purposes of Paragraph 6.1:

A relevant Person is the person, whether a Trading Party or another Party, to whom a relevant service is provided."
